We will never forget where we were on September 11, 2001, the moment we heard the news: two planes have just crashed into the World Trade Centers in New York City. We will never forget the images seen over and over on television: the footage of the second plane hitting the tower, the fire-fighters rushing into the building, watching with absolute agony the Twin Towers collapse, and seeing the most luxurious city in the world engulfed in a monstrous cloud of smoke. The cries from the citizens of New York wounded our hearts and left a scar there which will never heal. A feeling of utter shock and disbelief overwhelmed us that day as we tried to comprehend the incomprehensible. The losses from September 11 can be compared only to the losses which America suffered during the Civil War. Our nation lost thousands of citizens, a sense of security, and innocence. Yet from the ashes of these losses rose certain gains. Our country gained a new sense of pride and patriotism, a unity that did not exist on September 10th, and renewed feelings of compassion and friendship towards one's neighbor. However, no amount of gains will allow us to forget the heroes, victims, and events of that infamous day. It is the Pearl Harbor of our generation, and we, along with the entire world, were forever changed on September 11, 2001.

We will never forget

The day we became the 9-11 generation

Best friends Amy Morrison(10) and Krystal Rae Smith(10) show off their Colgate kid smiles.

Enriquetta Aguirre(12) and Kristin Dancy (12)

"We've known each other since freshman year, but our junior year was when we became friends. Now we're together all the time. We were even crazy enough to take Yearbook together and worked on a lot of the same layouts. That's a real test of friendship. If you can work together and stay friends, it's a good friendship.

(from right) Karen Barajas (12) and Carlene Demiany (12) with Lark Greenwald (10)

"Throughout high school our friendship has grown through the many difficulties and challenges which we have encounted. I will never forget the times which we have spent together from JSA Conferences to School Dances. It is always easier to handle every day stress and hardships with a loyal friend by your side."

There are places I remember all my life, though some have changed...

(right)
"I had a couple of jobs before, but nothing compares to Rubys! It's a lot of fun and it makes you feel like you're not working. I love it! I even go here when I'm off!"
-Amy Pollard (12)

"Me and my friends took a lil' trip to Del Mar for the weekend, with no parents, for one night in a condo... and midnight swims in the ocean."
-Kira Wilson (11)

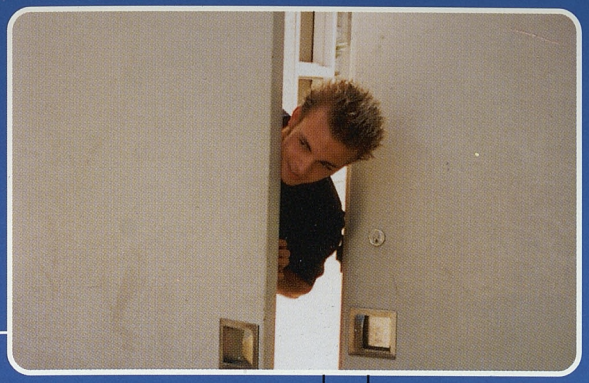
"San Diego is my second home, I love to surf, and hang out at any beach... checking out all the hotties, while showing off my wave skills."
-Katelynn Quinn (12)

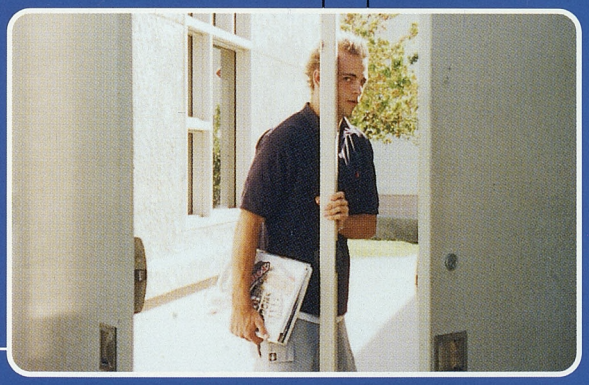
"Me and my girls love getting together and just having a night out downtown, either having dinner at C.P.K. or Las Casuelas."Heather Dibona (12), pictured here with Meghan Gallindo (12), Deah Abaya (12), Christine Soto (12)

"During the summer me and my best buddies headed out to Santa Monica Beach to get some sun, meet hotties and just have fun. We tried on all sorts of funny sunglasses as well."Cassie Dillon (12), pictured here with Nicole Najar (12), Evon Ailabouni (12), Kacee Ryan (12)



To avoid getting caught by a security guard, Jerry Campbell (11) first surveys the premises.

Once the coast is clear, Jerry attempts to make his get- away.



"I don't have to worry about staying in for lunch. I ditch through the corner gate; a notorious spot for getting off campus."

-Jerry Campbell (11)

"There is nothing better than the sand between your toes, the sunset in front of you, the sound of the waves, and hot babes lying around. I always have a blast being at the beach."

-Elizabeth Hill (12)

"I would have to say our favorite place to eat is El Taco Asado. My friends and I are always hitting it up to grub. Breakfast, lunch and dinner!"
-Mara Harris (12), pictured here with Ian Salas (12)

"All time favorite fast food is Jack in the Box! Its where me and my friends go to grab something to eat or just chill."

-Richard Garcia (9), pictured here with Regina Hudson (9) and Elena Bubbler (9)

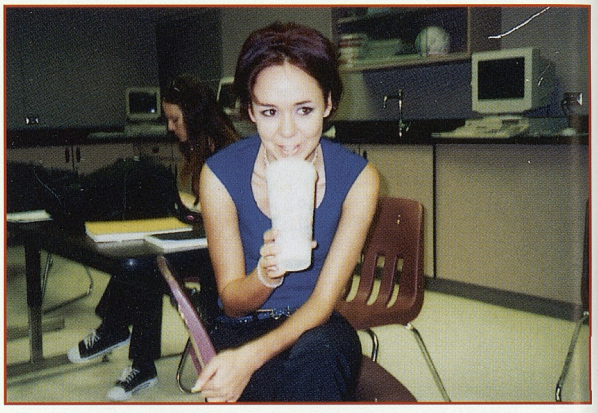
Off-Campus Lunch

DEL TACO
Every high school has it's own Del Taco. Always open, always convenient, always satisfying, always cheap, always...

FATBURGER
Ironic how it is located across from Gold's Gym, this local burger joint serves fat fries and fat burgers to fat people. Just kidding!!!

STARBUCKS
Boring classes getting you down? Head on over to Starbucks for a caffeine rush! You know it's all about the Frappucinos, it just doesn't get better than that.

Claudia Gonzalez' (12) response to underclassmen going off-campus.



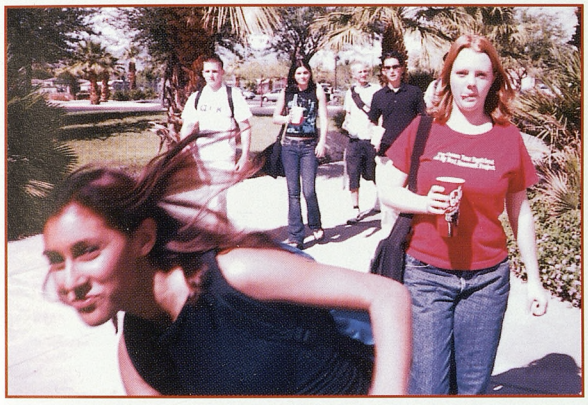
Rachel Taylor (11) sneaks a Jamba.

A time to grub...a time to chow down...a time to stuff your face...a time to socialize !

Christina Evigan (12) picks a winner !

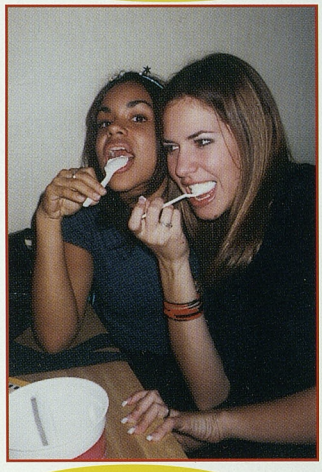
How does Vanja Terzic (12) enjoy a mouth full of pizza while talking on the phone?

These kids love their calzones from Rizzo's Pizzeria!!



A short lunch period makes Alexis Moreno (12) rush back to class as Michelle Nance (12) licks the remaining food off her lips.

Q:What does TCBY Stand for?



A:The Country's Best Yogurt! Seniors Nancy Joseph & Heather Di Bona both agree.

What is your idea of fashion ?a

A: "My idea of fashion is dressing your own way and being comfortable and not caring about what people think of you."
-Jaclynn Chaney

A: "I believe that there is no real idea of fashion. Everyone is different and has their own fashion that is unique."
-Noelle La Fleur

What is the most embarrassing thing you have ever worn ?

A: "That flourescent BMX hat would have to be embarrasing, I wore it downtown after a football game one Friday night."
-Danny Hoffman

A: "I have never dressed embarrassing before, because I always look good."
-Brandon Fenton

Exercising her fingers at the keyboard, Jessica Wilcox (12) practices for a gig.

Two Day Masquerade, or 2DM, consists of bass player Carly Guss (12), keyboardist Jessica Wilcox (12), drummer Ariela Izsak (9) and guitarist/vocalist Hayley Erin. Wilcox and Erin have been writing songs together since February 2001. Izsak and Guss joined in September, ending the search for a bass player and drummer.

The band's first performance was October 13, 2001 in the school's "911 We Care" fundraiser. They played "America," and original song "I Told You So". Other original songs are "Mercury Moment," "My Angel," "Open-ended," and "August 28, 1983."

"I don't think we really fit into a category like pop, punk, or emo... we just play," said Wilcox. They do claim such musical influences as Tsunami Bomb, Weezer, The Anniversary, Fairview, Nerf Herder, Reggie and the Full Effect, and The Get Up Kids. "I've always wanted to be in a band. It's amazing being able to express myself through a bass, an amp, and three other awesome musicians," said Guss.

2DM, while waiting for their big break, continue their garage practices and rocking out.

Time '02 Flow

Last in Line Drummer Josh Reef (10).

Senior Shawn Hardy and sophomores Josh Reef and Rigo Rodarte are members of one of the Coachella Valley's premier pop punk bands: Last In Line. The band has been around for about a year and has already built a cult following, here in the desert.

Last In Line notes their favorite bands as their major influences. These bands include Homegrown, Weezer, Blink 182, and New Found Glory. According to the band, they have written "too many songs to count." However, five of the infinite number of songs can be found on their new EP called Life Under 18 Is Just A Prologue. The EPwas produced in the studio of Imagine That Records over the summer of 2001. Life... features the songs "Means Everything," "On a Date," "My Freshman Year," "Your Dad Scares Me," and "Moving On." As far as describing the sound of the new record, the band does not have an answer. "We want to let our listeners decide for themselves," said Reef. Reef did have a comment or two regarding the music scene in the valley: "I think we have some really, really talented bands and musicians out here, but no one seems to care. In other cities like Pomona, people get really excited about a band putting out a CD or playing somewhere. We don't get that kind of reaction out here."

Flying through the air, on bike, board, horse, or skates, always initiates extreme adrenaline rushes.

'02 The Extreme

Air Justin
Motocross rider number 26, aka Justin Sarkisian (12), demonstrates how easy it is to defy gravity.

Extreme sports are gaining popularity with today's teens. Although dangerous, the persistant threat of falling is what keeps most of these extremists up. These students are the "X-Games" gold medalists of tomorrow. A new culture is rising with these sports, pushing all limits to the extreme.

Surfin' USA
Taking a break from Oceanside's sun and surf are Amber and Ashley Ball (12).

Wake me up before you go-go.
Starting his morning with a cold splash is Daniel Tise's (12) idea of an alarm clock. They don't call it *wake*boarding for nothing!

As cool as snow
If this picture could speak, Justin Sarkisian (12) would say: "AAAAAAHHH I'm flying!" Look out for the trees, man!

Ride 'em cowgirl!

There isn't any horsing around for Sarah Phaklides (12) and her horse, Quite Frankly, when clearing a jump. Sarah has been riding for six years. She says jumping is "like flying. It's awesome!" She rides 20-21 hours a week and would never want a horse named Mr. Ed. "My one requirement for college is that I still get to ride."

Stand & Cheer Up

"The 2001-2002 cheerleading season was a complete success," said Coach Jessica Amenabar. "This year's team has overcome immense hurdles and has done it with grace and style. The cheerleaders put forth a great deal of effort and have brought themselves to a higher level of skill and ability." The cheerleaders practice every day for two hours and cheer at games one to two nights a week. Practices consist of conditioning exercises, cheer and chant repetitions, practicing dance routines, and extreme stunting.
This year's team was led by Alisha Caldwell, Tiffany Caranci, and Sabrina Robinson.

Excuse Me, Comin' Through
Palm Springs High School heads into Arab territory for a touchdown, with the help of Quarterback Joe Johnson (11)

Down, Set, Hike

Fall 2001 proved to be a power-packed season for the Palm Springs High School Varsity Football Team. Beginning with an impressive win against Yucca Valley (49:6). Quaterback Joe Johnson, and Wide Recievers Tate Worswick and Stef-an Stagg continually set the field ablaze as "they played from the heart" (Coach Fabian). The Indians led with a war cry to claim victory against archrivals Cathedral City (38:34) assuring the team their right-ful place in the DVL winner's circle. "While not all of our expectations were met, 2001 proved to be a year of growth both physically and men-tally," (Steven Trost-12).

"Volleyball is one of my favorite sports", said Sara Baker (10), "It requires teamwork to achieve victory." The Junior Varsity and Freshman teams both were able to show the benefits of teamwork.The Freshman team won eight out of twelve games, including their post-season. They played many teams throughout the season and were still able to maintain a ranking of number four in the Desert Valley League. The Junior Varsity was also able to keep their wins consistent and become the third best in the Desert Valley League. They were not able to win a C.I.F. championship, but there's always next year.

Cross - Country

Despite the 2-4 season team record, the boys had strong individual performances, led by David Cifuentes, who went on in post-season competition to finish 13th place in the C.I.F. prelims at Mt. Sac. He was supported throughout the season by Josh Zappala-Yeron (10) and Edner Caday (12). The girls struggled to field a full, seven member team, but did improve greatly over the previous season, with signs of hope for the future (0-6 for the season, finished 6th at D.V.L. Finals). The individual girls still fared well at several invitationals with Natalie Rendon (12), Grace Garner (11), Michelle Zuniga (10) and Amber Blandette (9) bringing home medals throughout the season.

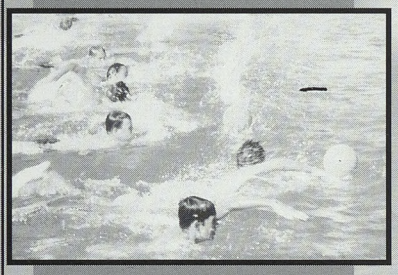
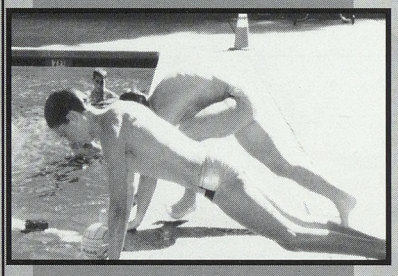
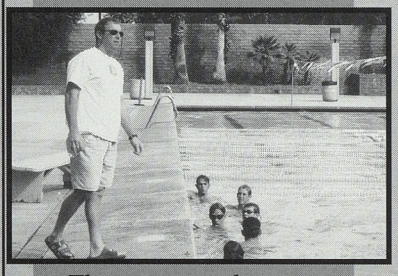
Boys' H2O Polo

Practice Makes Perfect







The water polo team stays in shape by practicing before and after school, swimming laps with the ball, and doing push-ups.

Water Wars

Waterpolo is a tough , highly competitive sport involving endurance, speed and quick thinking. In many ways it resembles soccer and championship wrestling thrown into a 13 foot deep pool. Any team attemping competition must be prepared to work hard. The boys worked to establish a strong sense of teamwork early in the season knowing that this would be key to achieving their goals. They came into the season with high hopes. As a team, they felt that they could have a shot at second place in the DVL and get past the first round of CIF. Dane Fredrickson and Matt Sullivan were key players in helping the team beak a twenty year -playoff drought by winning their first round CIF game. Overall, this season was a success.

A course, of course

Team scoring average improved to 63.3 strokes per round, down from last years 72.1! Each girl was awarded "Player of the Game" throughout the season for best rounds during a match. The best overall team score of 271 was achieved at Mission Hills with a match against Indio. Kate Moynihan and Christine Adams shot the season's best individual scores with 51's.

Team play was dramatically improved as the year progressed. After being 16 strokes behind a talented La Quinta team, Palm Springs came back to beat them by 25 strokes in their final round. This was a 51 stroke improvement over the first round.

The team was only one stroke away from second place in the DVL and was voted the Sportsmanship Award by the rest of the DVL coaches and teams.

A TEAM EFFORT
There's something about the smell of grass that has Kate Moynihan and Anna Carpenter playing golf. These two seniors were each awarded Player of the Game during the season. When asked what she likes most about golf, Anna quickly replied "breaking clubs and chasing ducks off the fairway." This was Kate's third year on the team and Anna's second.

At Tahquitz Creek, before a match against C.V. High School, Hollie Curtis (12) takes a practice swing and surveys the first hole.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

According to Coach Small, the team's goal for the 2001-2002 year is to "sneak into position" for the playoffs and "get past the first round." This year's team faced the challenge of competing against teams with "taller returning players," said Marcus Edwards. The Indians put more maximum effort into each game. They won against La Quinta, Coachella, and Desert Hot Springs.

Point Guard Lucas Berry believes that "A good player would have the qualities of being intense, focused, and under control at all times." He loves his position on the team, because "I get to run the team and keep everything under control." Marcus Edwards demonstrated the dedication required a good player. One of his memorable moments of the season was "waking up at eight o'clock in the morning to go to practice."

In all sports, it is essential for players to be consistent in their effort - they must perform at 100%, always. Coach Small believes "the most consistent player has been Kevin Howard," even though he admits that "when you have a team, as a coach, you don't depend on one player." In fact, sometimes you can't depend on the coach always being there. Coach Small's most embarrassing moment was "sitting out the Palm Desert game."

Varsity Girls' Basketball

Fast breaks, lay ups, three pointers, and blocks are all in a day's work for the Girls Varsity Basketball team. The team was led by the able Coach Tatum. With his assistance and the girls' abilities, the team was able to achieve 7 victories. This year's captains were Amber Ball (12) and Natalie Rendon (12). The team did not have a perfect season in the Desert Valley League but were still ranked highly and took 3rd place. Some of the most challenging teams for the Palm Springs Varsity team was La Quinta, Coachella Valley, and Cathedral City, according to Savanja Tatum. The girls' abilities progressed over the season. This should bring many more victories to the returning players for a more succesful season and the leadership to help along those new to the game.

Standing in neutral positions in the middle of the mat, the two players shake hands. With that, the match begins. With the experienced wrestlers from last year gone, the 2002 Wrestling team had to work harder than ever to beat last year's record. "Last year, we had a lot more experience. This team is a much younger team, so they needed to work harder", said Head Coach Pellum. In addition to all the hard work, their biggest obstacle is and always will be the dreaded scale. " I have faith in the team's training, so wrestling is not the problem, it's cutting the weight", said Senior Varsity member Jarrod Daguman. With the team's record, 11-8, the team proved they hadn't lost their winning edge.

Kicking Through 2002

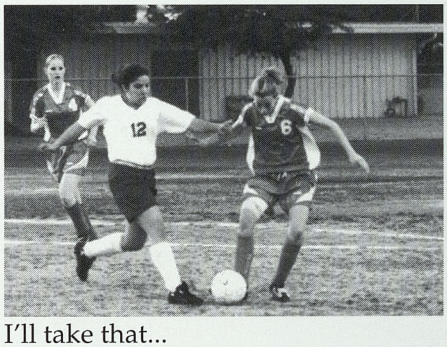
To the team:

So second place isn't that bad. I know that we deserved first, but we don't always get what we want. I know you guys will take first next year, and I will be in the stands cheering you on. Some things I will never forget are: Megan, Chantel, Esmi, Gabby and Sara dancing in the locker room before games, the time we all had our jackets, Martin dancing and feeling "glad all over (clap clap)", Lauren actually riding the bus home because Jeff said dinner was on him, but then he "forgot" his wallet, how quiet it gets when everyone falls asleep on the bus, listening to Jeff's speeches, giving all our love to the freshmen, moving Martin's car, the game we played when it was pouring and freezing, when we almost toilet papered Jeff's house but got too scared he would get mad, how loud it gets when everyone wakes up on the bus, when Megan ran into the field goal, Sara's "circle move", hearing Jeff predict exactly when Sara was going to fall, Sam's ability to not understand what's going on ever, Jennifer's gloves, the Slurpee Club, the way Ashley Tiedeman gets exctied when we play DHSHS, how Ally always wins the coin toss (tails never fails), Michelle hitting the post in the first Cat. City game, Chantel getting hurt after playing like a god, feeling so proud of little Freshman Ferro when she scored the goal against Cat. City in the last minute of the game, knocking all the cones down during warm-ups, running to Demuth Park and back, Chunky doing the exorcist, Gabby being a Texan and saying "ya'll" constantly, passing the ball around and saying one thing before the final Cat. City game, and last but certainly not least, I will always remember when each of you guys gave me a rose as they announced our team at my last DVL game. That was so great, you guys may never know. Thank you.

With that I have only one request for the team next year - be the champions I know you are. Work hard, but have fun, know that you deserve first place, and want it more than anything.

-Jessica Wilcox #9

Nutmeged!
After pushing the ball through Indio defender's legs, forward Michelle Martinez (10), runs on to score another goal for the Indians.



I'll take that...
Even with an injury, defender Lauren Johnson (11) takes the ball from Indio forward and clears the ball up field and out of danger.

Going the distance
With a burst of speed, defender Samantha Cornett "The Bullet" (11) runs the distance of the field unchallenged.

Boys' Soccer

"The most exciting game was when we played Cathedral City." said Erik Rodriguez (Junior Varsity), but this year it was more than just friendly rivalry for the Varsity team. Having lost one of their players to Cathedral City, it was more than just a game.

At the start of the season, the Junior Varsity did very well. "We had a very strong J.V. We won the Junior Varsity tournament in December, despite the fact that we had lost a few good players to Varsity," said Coach Tucker. "The most pivotal game was against Indio when we mixed up players and 'accidentally' made goals," added Tucker.

According to Matt Soto (Junior Varsity), the most memorable moment this year was when the junior varsity team won the West Valley Tournament. "I've had better years, but we worked pretty well together, and hopefully we will have a better year next year because we only lost one senior," said Jose Garcia (Varsity).

Begining and ending the year with a splash, the girls' water polo team took home an overall record of 6 wins:4 losses. These stats are evidence of their awesome skill and dedication. Recovering from the previous year's tragedy surrounding the death of their friend and fellow player, Misha Bishop, this year's team has gained in both physical and spiritual growth as they've set out to win, win, and win again. "This year's girls' water polo season can be summed up with the feeling I got when we won our game against our rivals, Cathedral City. It was a big deal for all of us; it was absolute ecstasy." - Madison Liddy (11)

Teeing Off For A Winning Season

Coach Murphy set the record straight about golf being a sport: "Golf is a sport, and anyone who plays it is an athlete." Coach Murphy went on to describe his team as one with a "football mentality" due to their aggressiveness on the course. The teamwas very young this year and composed of a number of freshman. "This makes the future look very promising," Coach Murphy stated with excitement. The team is comprised of only two seniors, therefore, few players will be leaving next year. The best player, according to Coach Murphy and Iain Macewan (11), is David "Liebs" Lieberman (10). Iain went on to state that David Lieberman is "on a roll and no one can stop him." The team achieved 9 victories on their home courses. These courses include Tahquitz Creek, Canyon Country Club, and O'Donnell golf courses. The golf team's main competitor was Palm Desert High School. "The Palm Desert team has been the main competitor and toughest to beat in past years," said Hunter Hartman (11).

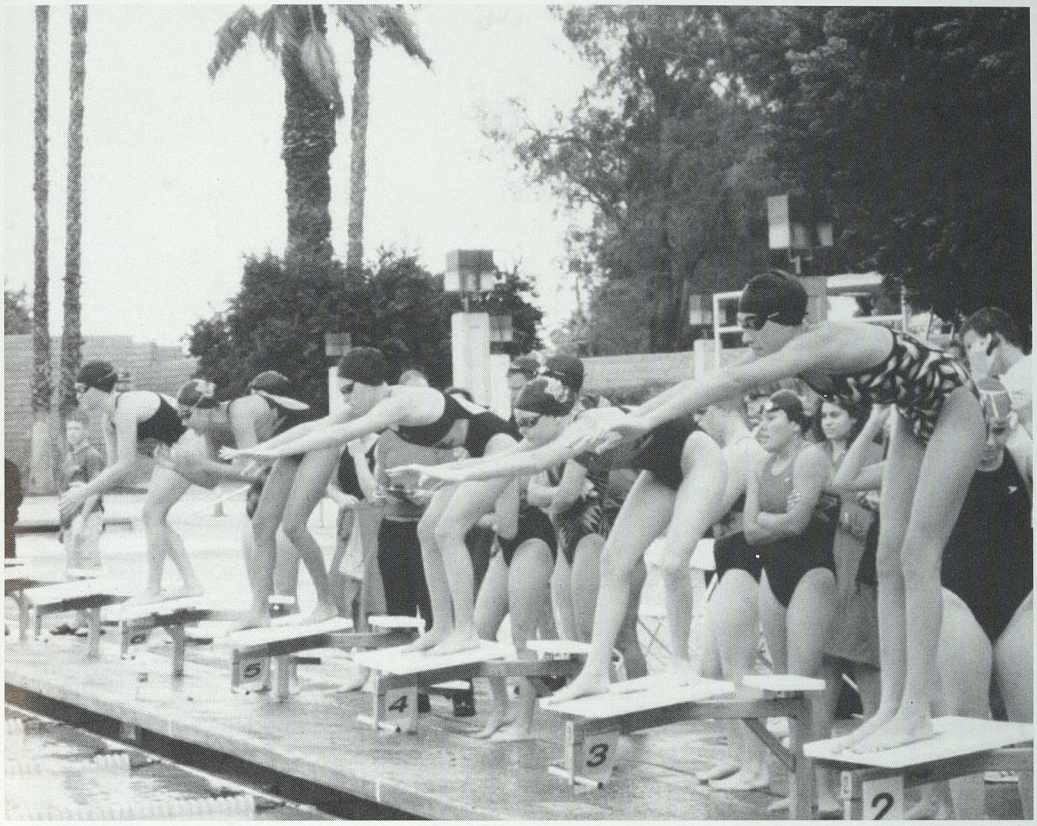
Girls' Swim



The Palm Springs girls' swim team did well this season and advanced to the CIF finals. After winning every meet, girls on the team speak highly of their season and of their coaching.

"My favorite thing about the season would have to be the close friendships that exist between all the girls and Skinner," said Amanda Millin (11)

"Through preparation and hard work the girls' swim team has had the best times in the valley," boasted Madison Liddy (11)

"The most important thing is not to let yourself get nervous or tense up. The best thing is to focus and think about what you have to do in your race," said Neysa Vargas (11)

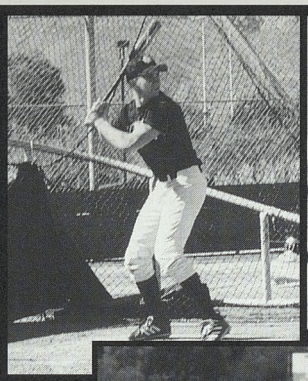
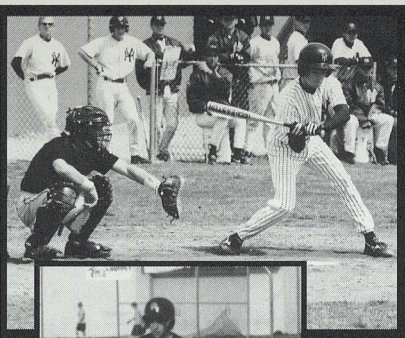
This years Boys' Varsity Team Captain, Sonny Waldron (12), believes that swimming is "an individual glory that benefits the team." Waldron stated that he loves being on the swim team, because of the "comraderie and friendships gained." Jeff Calhoun (10) agreed with Sonny and said, "the personal challenges and hard work pay off for the team in the end." Not only is swim a "unit of friendship," but it also keeps Dane Fredericksen (12) and Howard Lee (11) in shape for next season's water polo team. Each team member competes in a different event in which they focus their concentration and energy. For example, Dane Frederickson's favorite event is the 100 yd freestyle, Howard Lee competes in the 100 yd breaststroke, Sonny Waldron competes in the 100 yd backstroke, and Jeff Calhoun swims the 200 freestyle and the 500 freestyle. This year they were undefeated DVL Champions .

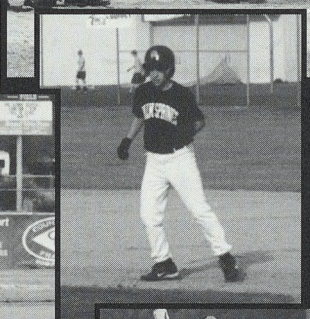
BASEBALL



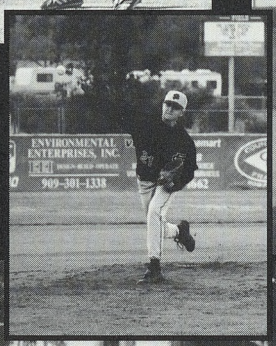
Selected to the All Riverside County High School Baseball Team,Tate Worswick (12) prepares to hit a home run. He supplies the team with a combination of power (4 Homeruns) and speed (4.7 seconds in 40 yards). " I've been playing for 12 years. I play because I'm good at it."



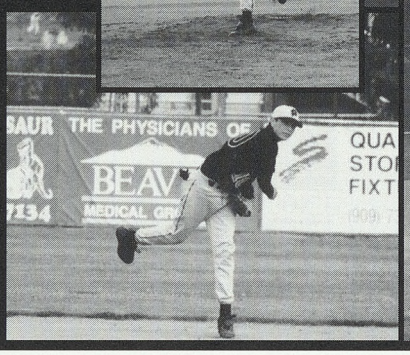
Mark Morocco (11) catches vs. Yucaipa. His increased desire to block balls in dirt will lead him to become an even better defensive catcher. He recieves the ball well, blocks aggressively, and throws accurately.



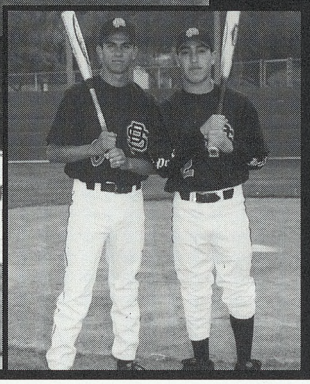
Lead off hitter Lucas Berry (12) watches to steal second base during practice. Varsity's Defensive Player of 2001 has an on base percentage of .525 which makes him a natural for that spot.



With the lowest ERA on the team in 2001, Garrett Dipietra (12) pitches with intensity. "I've been playing for about 13 years and I love the competition. When I pitch, I focus on pitching strikes."



Defensive Player of the Year With an outstanding .943 fielding percentage, Anthony Claggett (12), throws a runner out at first. Sure proof of why he's played Varsity for four years. "I've been playing since I was 5 years old. I play because it's the greatest sport ever."



Friends since Little League, Vincent Estrada (12) and Chris Palacios (12) are ready for action. Estrada adds quickness to the middle infield as well as speed to the offense. Palacios is a left handed pitcher. Claggett believes "he's a flat out competitor."

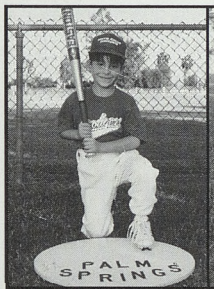
Coach Memo Perezchica, Head Coach Mr. Claggett, Assitant Coach Mr. Kroetz, and Coach Dave Escalante make up the 2002 Varsity Baseball Coaching Staff.

Desert Valley League coaches agreed, Palm Springs was a team to keep your eye on during the 2002 season. The fact that five of the seven DVL head coaches picked the Indians to finish either first or second is a testament to the steady improvement of the program. "I have no doubt that this team has made great strides over the past two years, but until we prove it on the field, it really doesn't matter what I think," said Herb Claggett, the head coach of the Boys' Varsity Baseball team. The Indians counted on their wealth of varsity experience to carry them to a championship. The roster includes eleven seniors and the opening day line up had seven starters from last year's team that posted a 12-14 record. There is enough talent on the Indian roster to challenge for a league title in 2002, but Claggett stayed guardedly optimistic. "I know we're better, but that's all on paper. We'll have to prove it on the field. If we are to win the DVL title the total of our whole will have to be greater than the sum of our parts."

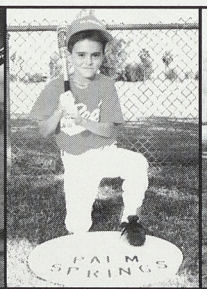
-C. Isbell



"I've been playing since I was 4. I enjoy the competition." Lucas Berry (12)

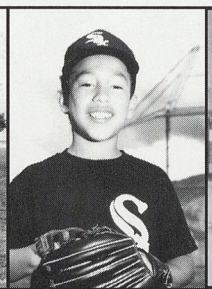
"My dad has been my coach since Little League." Anthony Claggett (12)

"I think I'm the strongest player because I'm just swole like that." Tate Worswick (12)

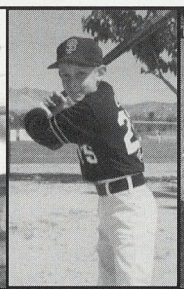


"I play baseball because I love the sport. It's in my blood... I guess." Garrett Dipietra(12)

"I play baseball because the girls like it." Vincent Estrada (12)



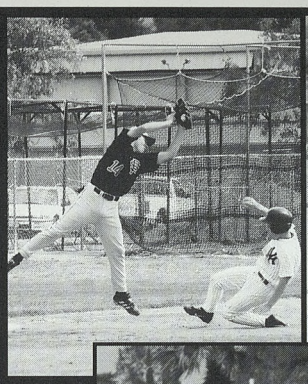
"I gain a lot of self confidence from playing baseball." Chris Palacios (12)



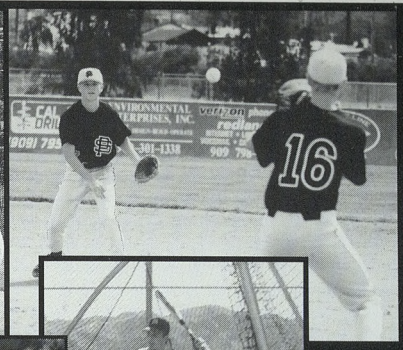
"Baseball is harder than it looks." Dennis Mueller (12)

"Through baseb I have gained a lifetime of friendships." Richard Smith (1

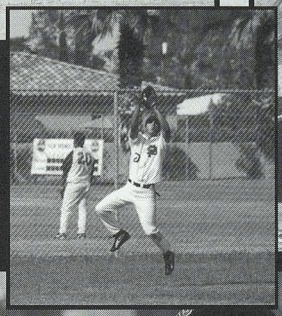
VARSITY



The only sophomore on the team, Jose Escobar (10) tags out a Yucaipa runner trying to steal a base. As 2001 Freshman MVP and Offensive Player of the Year Escobar demonstrates he's made of Varsity material.



Defensive JV Player of the Year, Hy Strebe (11) works with JV Pitcher of the Year Richard Smith (12) in an effort to get an out for the Indians. Strebe, playing for 11 years "works hard each and every day...I play because its fun; baseball is my life."



Mike Valdez (11) leaps to catch a fly ball in right field. "I've been playing baseball all my life. I play because it's an American pastime."

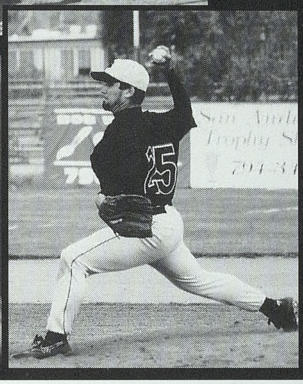
In the dugout, Chris Palacios (12), Richard Smith (12) and Mike Valdez (11) focus on the game as one of their teammates bat.



Varsity's 2001 Outstanding Pitcher, Chris Leclair (11) throws with heat every time he pitches. "The hardest thing about playing baseball is playing 3 games in a row. It's all worth it, though because I enjoy being with the team."

This year's softball season was overseen by Coach Olvera and Coach Svoboda for the Varsity, Coach Chatigny and Coach Knowlton for the Junior Varsity, and Coach Ruetz for the Freshman teams. Like the goals for all sports, the main goal for this softball season was "to be a better team than when we started," said Coach Olvera. Many of the players also had goals for this season, like "winning more DVL games than the previous season," said Natalie Rendon, and "playing our best, and doing well," said Sarah Ellison. In the beginning of this season, Olvera said he "knew the team had a decent chance, but nothing is guaranteed." He motivated the team by giving "positive and constructive feedback." Despite this, the team members paid an average of $5 every game for "Boo-boos" or mistakes.

BOYS TENNIS

The Boys' Tennis Team began with a great turnout for the tryouts. Every player who came to practice the first week was allowed to join the team. Coach Walton didn't cut a single player. "The way I see it, everybody staying helps the team to improve because if somebody really makes an effort and gets better they still have a chance to move ahead. This way everyone is forced to improve if they want to increase their chances to play." As the season began this became evident as the sixth and seventh positions on the nine-man varsity team changed. Players that were not in the top fifteen worked their way up to the starting line up.

This year's team continued in the ways of past Palm Springs High Tennis Teams. The Palm Springs/Palm Desert Rivalry was alive and well. "You have to keep the rivalry alive forever," said Mo Nasr, a graduate of Palm Springs High, and former member of the Boys' Tennis Team.

The team learned many things from Coach Walton this year. They learned that the way you practice is the way you play. Also, don't throw bananas and cheese-its out of the bus onto unsuspecting cars or "someone may not be playing tennis or any other sport here if I find out who it was." (Walton)

Finishing the season with an impressive winning record, the team was satisfied with this year's performance. Next year, they will have to win without their number one player, senior Robert Sabo. He's a perfect team leader and things will be tough without him, but the team will press on.

The "Spirit of the Sands," directed by Mr. and Mrs. Ingelson, has over one hundred members. Led by Drum Major Danielle Bush, band members took part in performances ranging from a welcome back for PSHS students on the first day of school to performing in front of a packed Rose Bowl during half time at a UCLA football game. The band played at all home football games this year, displaying their talents in the "Mask of Zorro" field show. During the Homecoming football game, the band performed a new field show that included the songs "Hooray for Hollywood" as well as "Hollywood Homecoming" which was arranged by the band's own Stefan Colson.

Parades are another big part of the marching band season. The band marched in the Homecoming, Golf Cart, Veteran's Day, and Festival of Lights parades. They also marched in Indio High School's Field Show Spectacular, which is the "most competitive non-competitive event we do," according to Mr. Ingelson.

The band has also did their part to help the victims of the September 11 tragedy by performing "God Bless America" at the PSHS Theater Company's 911 We Care benefit variety show.

Avid is a class that prepares students for college and the college experience."I hope each student leaves this class with the confidence to move on to college," said Avid Adviser Mr. Pellum. Fund-raising is one of the ways they hope to achieve their goals.The members of Avid had candy sales to raise money to visit seven different colleges. Their stops included : Cal State San Diego, UCSD, Cal StateFullerton , Cal Poly Pomona, UCLA, USC, and Cal State Long Beach." I want them to be prepared for college, to know what the teachers are expecting. I wish I would have had that when I started," said Mr. Pellum. Students join AVID in hopes of becoming more prepared for college." I joined AVID because I needed something to get me ready for college, and it looks good on my transcripts," said Freshman Laquisha Johnson.

Business Interns

Intern students have the opporunity to get first-hand experience in the career of their choice through the P.I.E. program to help them determine future career goals and how to attain those goals. These careers vary from doctorate level preparation to high school diploma requirement. Most students get a great taste of a variety of careers related to their career goals and interests; i.e. students interested in pursuing a medical career may intern at as many as 15 different medical sites. Medical careers boast the largest number of interns. Other popular career pathways are business, culinary, journalism, veterinary, airlines, architecture and fashion/interior design. Apart from the experience gained, interning students leave the program with plenty of interesting memories. Tonia Brauner's most embrassing moment about P.I.E. was "having to take pictures all the time." Another intern student, Maria Juarez, says that P.I.E. is different because she has to work alongside adults, "I get to shadow someone who has my dream job." Mrs. Wood, the advisor for P.I.E. observes, " this year the students are more involved, and much more interested." Says Wood, "about 50% plan to continue in that career, and all took it seriously." Mrs.Woods ends by saying, "It has been another great year."

Maya Club

With the leadership of President Tanya Gabino, Vice-President Celeste Sanchez, Secretary Sara Flores, and Treasurer Ana Cortes, the Maya Club was able to take a field trip to San Diego State University where they learned all about college life and shadowed the college students themselves. Back at school, the annual food sale was a huge success and offered carne asada, beans, rice, tortillas, salsa, and soda. The sale and three car washes helped them raise enough money to have their end of year field trip to Universal Studios. "The Maya Dance and the Maya dinner were great, I wouldn't ask for anything more," said Vice-President Celeste Sanchez. "It has been a lot of hard and busy work but it's starting to payoff, "-Maya Club Advisor Mr. Olvera.

Rotary Interact

Service Above Self

The Rotary Interact club is all about "Service Above Self." These members dedicate their time to help those who are less fortunate. Club members give up their weekends to help distribute water at running events, make boxes for canned goods that will be distributed to the homeless during the holiday season, and even help to serve a Christmas lunch to the blind at the Braille Institute. With the helping leadership of Ms. Krenwinkle, Ms. Hough and Dr. Gurke, this club has done much to help out around the local community.

What Is The California Scholarship Federation?

CSF members are in the top ten percent of their classes. These students maintain cumulative grade point averages of 3.5 or higher throughout their high school careers, and devote many hours of their lives to community service. Each year the federation has a seal bearers' banquet in honor of seniors who have been members for five semesters. These seal bearers graduate at the top of their class, and all students of California Scholarship Federation enjoy the prestige that comes from being members. "As Albert Einstein once said, 'The problems that exist in the world today cannot be solved by the level of thinking that created them.' Organizations like CSF are essential in creating the heightened sense of consciousness that will allow us to find creative solutions to the problems we face." --Danielle Bush. "It's great that there are organizations that recognize students who work hard.. For me it's an internal motivation, I work hard because I want to achieve all I can, it's not an external competition."--Carly Guss. "Life drives me to be academically competitive; the fact that the better you do in school, the better off you'll be in life."--Tim Wilson. Essentially, being academically competitive is "...not about the grade, but about the knowledge."--Courtnee Hastings.

Regional Occupation Program and Vocational Education

R.O.P. and VOC

The Regional Occupation Program and Vocational Education offer students insight into many career-oriented environments. Students have the opportunity to learn, hands-on, the skills of different careers. The Regional Occupation Program is led by Janeil Esmeralda and offers different opportunities in such diverse career fields as Medical Assisting, Cabinet Making and Computer Repair. Vocational classes offered at Palm Springs High span from Computer Applications to Accounting to Videography to Metals.

J.R.O.T.C. In Action

The goal of JROTC is to build better citizens for our country. They do this by stressing the importance of self-discipline, leadership, and service for the community. Not only do cadets learn marching skills, they also study the US Air Force organization, its rank structure, and the history of aviation. In addition to classroom work, cadets are encouraged to participate in outside activities and community service projects. Some of these include field trips to: 29 Palms Marine base, the Palm Springs Veteran's Day Parade, the Festival Of Lights Parade, the Black History Parade, the Indio Date Festival, and a Pass-In-Review with the PSUSD high school JROTC programs. The job done by Ramon cadets during Color Guard presentations at the monthly Ramon Academy Award Ceremonies was particularly impressive. While in JROTC, students earn promotions in rank and also are awarded ribbons for their participation in after-school activities. This year, 25 Ramon Academy students were enrolled in JROTC. This is the second year that Ramon Academy students have participated in the Air Force Junior ROTC program.

Best Buddies

"I joined Best Buddies to make a difference in someone's life and to meet new diverse people that I can learn from," said Secretary Erica Mosca.

With one-on-one friendships, Best Buddies erases the line that separates those with disabilities from those without. This new club began the year with the Best Buddies Ball, held at Knott's Berry Farm, where members enjoyed line-less rides and having fun with their buddies. In this, their first year at PSHS, this club won best chapter in the state.

Alumni News

Grads and Non-Grads

Message From The PSHS Alumni

Congratulations, Seniors! You are now automatically members of the Palm Springs High School Alumni Association. Your membership is free and permanent in this alliance, whose aims are both social and charitable.

Following a number of class and multi-class reunions in the '50's and the '60's that were very successful, Moya Henderson, then faculty, and Ron Pendergast, Class of '57 and also a faculty member, planned a retirement party for Paul Summers, who was a member of the original faculty that opened school in 1938. This retirement party was for all alumni, classes and staff. It was an outstanding success. Following his retirement, Mr. Summers and Dick Henson, Class of '48, and others formed the Alumni Association. They established a Trust Fund for grants to graduating seniors, to assist in their continuing education in the names of students who died in the military service of our country.

The Association is open to all former students, staff and faculty. It facilitates class reunions and maintains a 20,000 plus name and address file from the school's opening in 1938 to the present. Currently, its automated file contains the addresses of over 56% of the alumni, filed alphabetically and by class. You need only inform the Alumni Association of your address changes as you move through life by sending a post card to:

The Alumni Association
Palm Springs High School
2401 E. Baristo Road
Palm Springs, CA 92264

Each class has at least one representative who helps keep its class file up-to-date and helps arrange reunions. If you wish to participate, contact the Alumni Association.

Nostalgia for a reunion may set in as early as 5 years after graduation; certainly in 20 years. To date, there have been 59, the grandest being the school's 50th anniversary celebration held at the Palm Springs Convention Center in 1988. It was a sit-down dinner served to 1600 alumni and guests! Social events over the years have ranged from picnics to homecoming games; from tailgate parties to black-tie dinners.

Through the years, the Alumni Association has played an active role in recognizing worthy achievements and honoring graduates. It has, among other activities:

1) Paid annual tribute to 14 alumni combat fatalities of WW II and Vietnam Wars
2) Managed an Association Scholarship Trust Fund and awarded 50 senior students scholarships, totaling more than $40,000
3) Commended 12 local physicians for their gratis service to high school athletic programs
4) Granted "Alumni Honored Teacher" status to 29 former faculty members
5) Sent out innumerable mailers and supplies directory lists to class reunion organizers
6) Recruited "Angel Bank-Rolling" to supply loans for reunion pre-event expenses
7) Served as point of contact for alumni and their Alma Mater
8) Conducted "Names on Bricks" fund raising project to fund special school projects, such as computers for the liberty

The Alumni Association welcomes you, wishes you success, and hopes you will maintain a close and satisfying relationship with us.

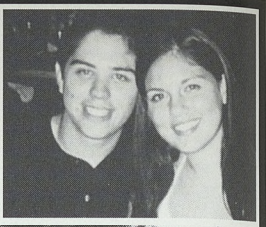
Beloved Teacher Honored By Alumni

When Paul Summers Died last year, there was an outpouring of sorrow and love from friends and past students. The PSHS gymnasium was named for Mr. Summers, and his death inspired additional tribute and donation. Gifts of money were collected. A bronze plaque with profile and testimonial was crafted and installed in the gym, and a sizeable amount was added to the scholarship fund. We will all miss him terribly.

Three Generations Of PSHS Alums

John Williams settled in Palm Springs shortly after WW I in 1919. He and wife Helen had three children, Marian '42, Helen Lousie '44, and Don '47. Don stayed in Palm Springs and married Emily Rinsch (her uncle was Dr. Arthur G. Hoff, Superintendent of PSUSD). Don and Emily had two sons, Gene '74 and Ron '78. Gene and wife Cindy have three children, Rebekah '00, Brent '05, and Blake; Rebekah graduated last year as a Valedictorian, Ron married Kay Heldenbrand '80. Their children, Amanda and Kenny, attend Raymond Cree Middle School. Kay is a teacher at Cielo Vista. Both patriarch John W. and Don Williams have served on the Palm Springs Unified School District school board. A family with a fine tradition of educational service!

Gene '74, Cindy, Brent '05, Blake, Rebekah '00, Emily, Don '47, Amanda, Kay '80, Kenny, and Ron '78. Blake, Amanda, and Kenny are future grads of PSHS



To My Might Protector,
I couldn't imagine my 3 years of high school without you and I can't imagine spending the rest of my life without you. You have brought me so much joy and laughter every single day of my life. I can still remember sophomore year, when I first met you, and how much I liked you. And, our first date was so much fun, even though we wouldn't admit to ourselves that it was in fact a date. I'll never know why you waited so long to ask me out, but I was so happy when I got that phone call at 11:00p.m. asking me to be your girlfriend, and how extremely nervous and cute you were. When we first met, I wanted to spend every single second with you and nothing has changed. As we embark on another chapter of our lives together, don't forget our song "Crash Into Me," our restraurant "Palomino," our stuffed monkeys Tarzan and George, and most importantly those infamous dates: March 31, May 24, August 15, and of course September 24, 2000, I know I won't! When I look back on all the obstacles we have overcome it assures me, how special our love is and what an amazing gift God has given me. Thank you for loving me, even when I am being impossible. I love you more with each passing day. Love, Your Beautiful

Hey "Beautiful", I can remember staring at you in Mr. Jones' chemistry class in the 10th grade, sometimes moving my whole desk just to get you in plain view. Never would I imagine going out with you. Remember our first date? We were so nervous! But we survived. Roxanna you are the strongest person I know. You always have the answer and keep me up when I get down. Even when I throw my temper tantrums you are always there willing to forgive me. God has truly blessed me bringing you into my life and I am so thankful for you. I can't wait for my future together with you. I love you so much and you make my life complete. Love, Ray

PS. "DHIMH" Remember the day we made salsa at my house. That was fun.

Happy 18th Birthday!

Dear Michell, (a.k.a. shell)
Hey there girl, what up?
I'm not sure where to begin, we've been through so much in the past three years. I'm suprised we didn't kill each other j/k. Through good times and bad, the parties, the 55 minute road trip, the guys and the times we would just crack up over my blonde moments and your "wait, wait, wait" ask me if I care, moments. hehehe. You're like the sister I never had and the friend that I've always wanted. It's been fun being the only girls in the "group". hehehe. let's not forget our snobby lines such as "Sheee 5 minute" or "you're such a nut". Thank you again for always being there. We've got a long road ahead of us and it'll only get better.
Love, Jess

To the guys: Thanks for being there for us and for being over protective "older bros." j/k.
We still love ya.

Jessica:
The past three years have been like heaven and hell put together as one.. I don't think I could have survived without a friend like you. From downtown, Del Taco to L.A. (speed demon) to Del Taco again. From jerk to jerk and our endless trips to Oasis (numbers of lifeguards). I will never forget the leaches that tried to get into the way, ut didn't, and the drama that never tore us apart, but tore everyone else. Parties at your place (never trust Shawn), Camelot, Adam's work, Zach's house, Steve's house, parking lot to parking lot, Knotts (ooops..), Newport, San Diego, "Shhh.. 5 minutes!" Breakfast at Denny's! But most of all the driving aimlessly, which alomost always ended in going to "Jessica's house". Ditchday with Shawn and Eddie, spa to pool in 3.5 seconds. Rain forest cafe. Thank you soo much for always being there, you are the sister I never had. Through good times and bad, high school is done, but our friendship will continue, we gotta get out of this town!!
Adios, love ya always, Shell

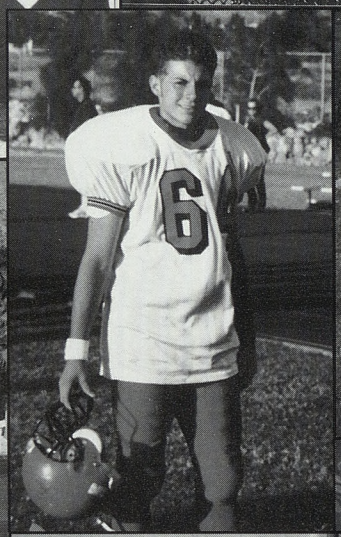
Noel,
You have had your ups and downs and managed to succeed your first goal in life. On behalf of your entire family, we would like to let you know how proud you have made us.
May God keep you safe always.
TE QUEREMOS
June 2002

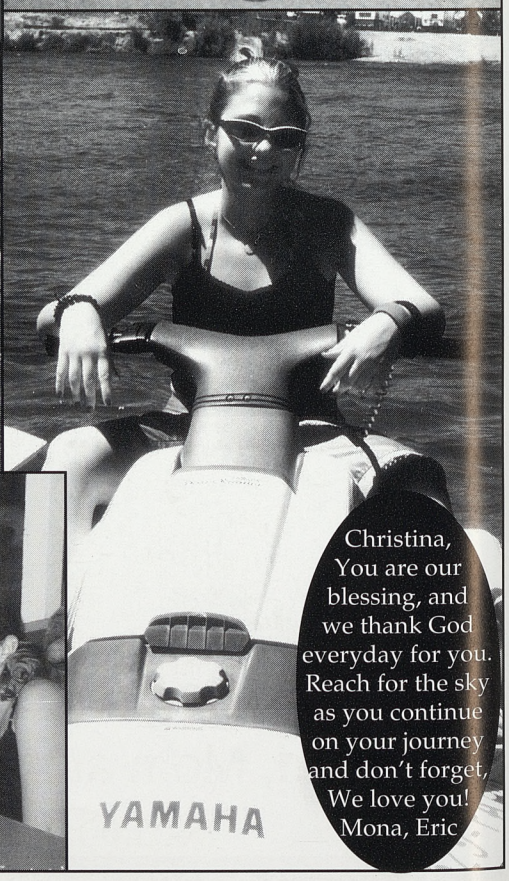
Congratulations

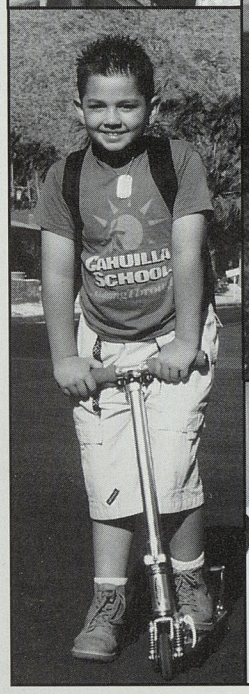
Jessica Wilcox

We love you!

Mom, Dad, Becca and Ness







Christina,
You are our blessing, and we thank God everyday for you. Reach for the sky as you continue on your journey and don't forget, We love you!

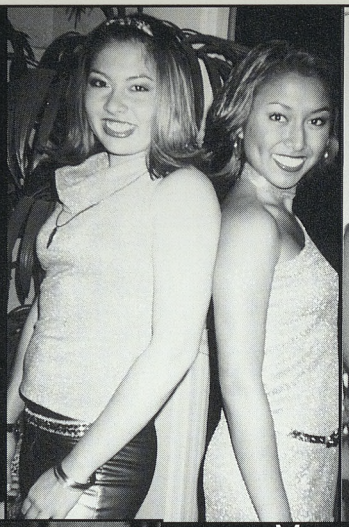
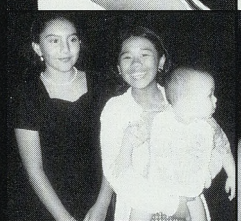
Mo, Jose, and Gies-Have fun your senior year I'll miss you much!

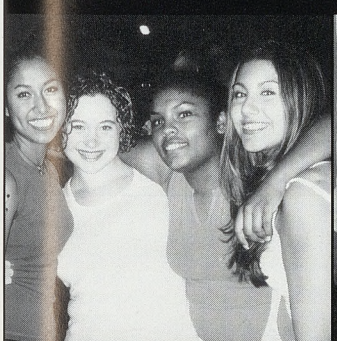


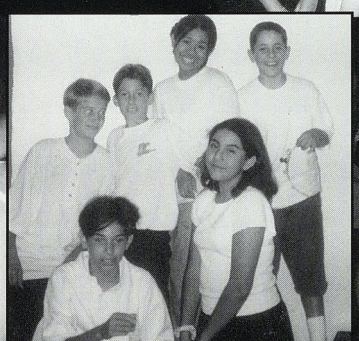
My precious weenies!

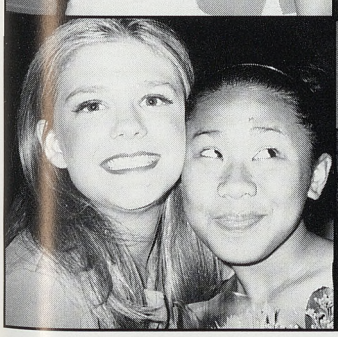
My precious Deah, ever since I met you in third grade,I knew I had made a bond that would last a lifetime. Your precious smile, your kind laugh, your warm hugs, have carried me through all these years. We have shared so many wonderful memories together and we have yet to make more. I've grown up with you dreaming, achieving, living, and learning. I will always remember all the hilarious times (camping/toe, row of geese/boys, SHAQ!, Mosca!, USC..too many to list!) and all the hard times (let's not think about those K?!); but nevertheless, all the times I've spent with you. I thank God for bringing such a true friend into my life.
My beautiful Yesenia, girl you know I ain't never gonna forget you! You are kicka$$! A smile automatically comes over my face when I reflect on all the awesome times we've spent either on guys or clothes or ..I guess that's all! We've spent so much money..or more like other people's money! I am so grateful that I have such an uplifting, sunny friend. Stay true to who you are and never forget..unibrow, undercover peisa, 1000s of times eating, Vic&Vic, Juan&Juan, Silver&ok let's forget that, 3 in 1 day..or night! camping, L.A., Newport, and more. I love you girl! My sweet Roxanne (my only Queeny!) I see you as my little sister or cousin just as everyone else does. As my only Queeny I hold our friendship dear to my heart. Together we've traveled about 4000 miles and I will never forget each moment of the way. I am going away now but our memories I will take with me wherever I go. Roxy I believe in you! Just know your going to succeed. Stay sweet, you'll always be my queeny.

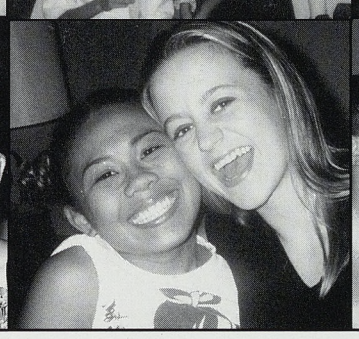
My lovely Roxanna, thanks to Ms. Cohen. fate. and weight? we have become friends. From our English project to our experience in yearbook &APES we have only grown closer. Thank you for all those wonderful times we spent making fun of other people especially ourselves..macabeth, Z&C,pantrolls, star earings, USC,San Bern. flamer, Homecoming,etc.
My gorgeous Erika, when I think of you the goddess Aphrodite comes to mind. You are beautiful in so many ways, I will never forget all our times with all the little "eenies!"My inspirational Crystal, you are truly someone who motivates others. You encompass too many great qualities to list and are such a positive influence on me, thank you. My genuine Tiara, Tiara DAWG! I will never forget our summers 2gether, I'm glad we became close through Adv.Alg. & stayed close.
As we embark on seperate paths to our bright future, I'll always treasure the moments we've shared in our journey through high school, you all have been a blessing to my life. Thank you for everything, I love you girls!











Yvonna, "I hate Quees!" Ever since the 3rd grade, I knew we'd be together forever (desert Biology, RC dances, Melrose, mexican food, all nighters, college aps, USD, smuggle Snuggles, yearbook, family issues, Homecoming) I hold our friendship so dear 2 my heart. W/o u, I think I'd be losing a part of me. I love you more than u will ever know. If I have failed 2 show u, just look inside my heart, by the little things that really count, by laughter, the tears, the warmth that u feel when we R together. God has blessed me with the gift of u. Crystal, a million thank yous will never xpress my graditude 4 u being there 4 me in every possible way. Inspiring letters, truth or dare night, woking out, nights of hw, heartfelt conversations, spam & rice, & unexpected flowers R only a few of the many wonderful things I'll always cherish. I love u Crystal so much. U keep me going & striving 2 be a better, more successful person each day, academically, socially, & internally. I'm looking forward to more memories together in college. Jenna, remember my bday last year & it was Mark's party. I just want 2 thank you 4 making my bday so great with your open & funny humor that night, followed by sickness the next morning (I'm sorry). U R the kindest person in the universe & I admire u 4 your big heart. Thank u 4 always believeing in me & loving me 4 who I am, good & bad. U R beautiful, intelligent, & loving. I couldn't ask 4 a better friend. Thanx 4 the many dinners with your family or our occasional salami & mayo sandwiches. I'll never get sick of them. Thank u 4 unexpected kisses that melt my heart & brighten my day. U truly have a heart of gold & with that u make me so rich. Tiara, thank u 4 the times u fall asleep while I watch our movie by myself (hehe). I love your company, your funny 1 liners "Come Monday, this $#!@ was crackin", your help through many classes, but most of all just u. High School is just the begining 4 us. We still have our CPK plan 2 do in college. Cheriece, Melissa, Nancy, I love u guys so much & even though we R not as tight, I'll love u & hold u close & dear 2 my heart. I wish u the best of luck in all your endeavors & hope nothing but the best. May God bless u with happiness in the end. I love u. Kobe, Bebe, I want u 2 know how much I love u & will miss u & will treasure the great times we shared together- the raves we never met up at, the "kids" we took care of, the big parties, the small kickbacks, or the nights where it was just us making candy, cleaning your room, our weekly movies, or just talking about everything & nothing. I hope u'll still try hard in school & stick 2 our plan. Remember, always be honest, I'll always be here for u, u can come 2 me 4 anything, & be smart when it comes 2 boys. I love u Catherine Neighbors, oh, so much. Erika, I'll miss our times w/ cheer, making cookies, & going to Walmart in our pj's. But I hope those times are only the beginning. Thank u 4 being my friend. There has never been a time when u have not been kind 2 me. U R truly 1 of a kind. Yesenia, u R my sunshine & my lucky star. U R beautiful, funny, & so much fun 2 be around. Our time together & memories we share R so priceless- cheer competitions, all-stars, football games, & BOYS! Take care of yourself, I love u! Lucas, I'm so glad u got accepted 2 the only college u applied 2. I wish u the best of luck in college & hope u succeed in life. I love u very much & that will never change. If I could ever help u out in the future, don't hesitate 2 ask. Paul, I cannot thank u enough 4 the many times u help me study 4 Bingham & finish Goehring's hw. I don't think I'd be where I am today w/o some of your help & knowledge. You're awesome, please don't grow 2 cool 2 forget me. You're always welcome 4 Thanksgiving @ my house and I'll always be here for a massage. Brian, Cheriss, U guys R amazing & awe inspiring. Whatever u do in life, may u be happy & walk w/ the Lord hand in hand. Your gracious & beautiful hearts deserve only the best of what life offers. Thanx Bri 4 being a great winter formal date. I love u & thank u 4 loving me. Shay, there are just no words 2 xpress my love. Just look into my heart & ucan feel what I mean. Jose, Hotboy, take care of your ankles so u can rock on the soccer feild next yr. Make the best out of everyday & enjoy your senior yr. These times R passing by fast, so don't forget 2 look around u. I'll miss u (& Steve) very much.
